Taxation

Insights
The Director of Taxation at Anant Bhatt LLP is Ms. Elizabeth Meyo. She is the Former Commissioner of Domestic Taxes - The highest post in Kenya Revenue Authority (KRA). She was directly involved in implementing iTax, Kenya's current tax management portal for all citizens. The firm has a famous and well known success-driven track record in tax services. We continue to resolve taxation queries for companies having revenues in Billions of KES, and also countless Ultra High Net Worth Individuals. The firm has a information section on the website, and it can help in understanding Kenyan tax.

Taxation can be tricky business. Getting the best help to guide you and your enterprise safely around the laws of taxation will be of utmost importance for the preservation of your capital. We offer an extensive range of taxation services to help you navigate these processes, especially when the timing is critical.

Our taxation services

- Tax compliance services
- Taxation planning services
- Preparation & the filing of tax returns
- Dealing with tax authorities on your behalf
- Filing for appeals, and representing clients at hearings

- International tax advisory & implementation
- Transfer pricing services & advisory
- Major transactions, mergers & acquisitions (M&A) tax advisory
- Indirect taxation services
- Wealth preservation consultancy & integrated tax advisory for high net worth individuals

Restructuring & Insolvency

Insights
Anant Bhatt LLP is an established name in Kenya's insolvency history - working with banks, the Courts and private arrangements. The firm continues to be involved in numerous landmark cases of National interest, such as Kenya Commercial Bank's receivership of EnglishPoint Marina, over a outstanding debt of KES 5.2 Billion. The firm through Kamal was also appointed as liquidator of United Insurance Company, by the High Court of Kenya.

We understand that sometimes things don't go to plan, and times can get tough. We get into action by identifying the existing problems, creating avenues to diminish the constraints and paving a way for a sustained growth model. Avoiding insolvency is our top priority - but if it does come to that, we plan the best for all stakeholders.

Our restructuring & insolvency services

- Consultancy on business distress
- Advisory on re-structuring of the business &
- re-financing options
- Strategically formulating & implementing a plan of action for recovery
- Advising the management & board on short, medium or long term governance
- Legal appointment as administrators, receivers or liquidators

Management Consultancy

Insights
The firm is proactive, and decisive in providing effective and concrete management consultancy for clients. The firm on one instance provided consultancy to the Government of Kenya's Kenya Deposit Insurance Corporation (KDIC), where in we wrote and handed over a internationally recognized book on "Failed Banks in Kenya". We focused on the history, reasons for failure and future precautions for some of the banks that failed in Kenya's recent history post-independence.

Performance will always be driven by the management culture within your enterprise. Having the keen eye to optimize the critical factors of people management, cash flow sustainability and business performance will be the deciding factors for your success. We understand this, and investigate as well as implement just the right steps needed for you.

Family Owned Business Services

Insights
The firm has deep knowledge and experience in dealing with family businesses. On one instance, the firm was instrumental in helping the Multi-million dollar worth LAXCON construction group in separating their Seychelles, UK and Kenya businesses across brothers - as per their wish. The split could have attracted major difficulties if the fine details were not spelt out, and organized.

Family owned businesses are always unique in their field, vision and goals. Making sure they operate swiftly across generations can be a daunting task, and thus only the best can deliver. We understand that families will come across unique problems, and we are prepared to provide unique solutions.

Our family owned business services

- Setting, developing and implementing the goals & visions of the business
- Succession planning across generations
- Conflict resolutions for board members, trustees & management
- Advisory on growth of family wealth and preservation of wealth
- Family business planning services
- Consultancy on enterprise governance

Forensic Consultancy

Insights
Forensic consultancy is often seen as a difficult area. On one instance, a client having tens of petrol stations, and income in Billions of KES suffered from a loss of KES 100m in stolen funds. We were instrumental to paving the way forward for the company, by identifying how the funds were diverted, and who the true culprits were. The legal system took the conversation forward after our investigations were complete.

Accounting Irregularities are serious issues that endanger the business, and the welfare of its stakeholders. Having the foresight to identify, investigate and rid the business of these problems will ensure your survival in the market. Anant Bhatt LLP has the right skills to consult you on forensic investigations you may need.

Our forensic consultancy services

- Forensic investigations
- Audit and special committee investigations
- Financial statements misstatements & inadequate disclosure investigations
- Independent advisory to the auditors
- Due diligence

Accounting Services

Insights
Accounting is one of the firm's core services, and we have been practicing it for the past 75 years. Even before the advent of digitized systems, in pre-independent Kenya times we used to keep hand-written ledgers for clients - and our Founding Partner also received a letter congratulating his efforts from the British Governor on his accurate accounting. Over the years and with introduction of technology, our firm's core business capability has only improved for a seamless client experience.

All efficient people require one key element - time. Spending time on the critical factors that drive you and your business is essential to its success. Outsourcing the business functions that don't serve a core purpose, to extremely experienced professionals will enhance growth. This is where we come in, and excel.
